THE Numb. 67.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

From Friday, November 4, to Friday, November 11, 1737.

From the Daily Gazetteer, Auguſt 16.

THERE is Advice by a Letter from Belgrade, of July 11, O. S. That the Plague among the Tartars in the Crim commits more Ravages than any of the preceeding Mortalities ever did: That the Prince of Saxe-Hilburg-hauſen is Maſter of all the Forts and Intrenchments that were raiſed in Croatia and Boſnia, by Order of the Renegado Bonneval; and that the Turks at Niſſa have evacuated that Place, to the Number of 14,000 Souls.

A particular Letter from Vienna, of the 23d ult. O. S. ſays, The Court of Spain has acceeded to the General Treaty concluded between the Emperor and France: That as ſoon as General Wallis entered Wallachia, the Hoſpodar of that Country offered to put himſelf under the Emperor's Protection, and to pay him Tribute, upon Condition of being defended againſt any Inſult from the Turks; and that the Hoſpodar of Moldavia has made the ſame Offer: Both which, 'tis believed, will be accepted by the Imperial Court, becauſe they promiſe to join a conſiderable Body of Troops to the Imperial Army, as well as to pay large Contributions.

The Dutch Miniſter in Turkey has wrote to the Miniſter of that Republick at Vienna, that the Sultan was retired privately to Adrianople, for Fear of an Inſurrection in his Capital.

There's Advice by Letters from Viſtula, of the 11th ult. That the Grand Army of the Turks is ſo ſurrounded by the Ruſſians, that it will be obliged to run the Riſque of a Battle, in order to get clear of them: That General Lacy, after having defeated the Tartars who oppoſed his Paſſage, has laid Siege to Gianicula in Tartary; and that his Army is poſted in ſuch a Manner, as to be able to join General Munich in a very ſhort Time.

Late laſt Night arrived one of the Mails due from Holland, with the Confirmation and Particulars of the Taking of Oczakow and Niſſa.

The other moſt material Advices are contained in Letters from Vienna, of the 27th ult. O. S. which ſay, that Count Seckendoff has ſent General Schmettau with a Detatchment, to lay Bulgaria under Contribution, and to beſiege Widdin, which is a Place much ſtronger than Niſſa, of much more difficult Approach, better furniſhed with Troops, Artillery, and Proviſions: And that Count Bonneval, who had aſſembled a numerous and well-diſciplin'd Army in Boſnia, from which the Germans expected great Oppoſition, is by expreſs Orders from the Porte, ſet out with all Haſte for Conſtantinople; but for what Reaſon is not known.

Edingburg, Aug. 9. Sunday laſt, upon the Arrival of the joyful News of the Princeſs of Wales being happily deliver'd of a Princeſs, the Flag was diſplay'd from the Caſtle, at 12 at Noon the Great Guns were fir'd, and at Night there was a large Bonfire on the Wall. In the Evening the Great Guns from the Men of War in the Road of Lieth were alſo fir'd off. Yeſterday likewiſe there were publick Rejoicings for the ſame all over this City from the Morning 'till Night, and in the Evening the Magiſtrates met in the Town-Houſe, and drank the Loyal Healths unde a Diſcharge of the Fire Arms of the City Guards, and with the Ringing of Bells.

We hear that the Act for bringing to Juſtice the Murderers of Captain Porteous, has been generally read in the Synod of Merſe and Teviotdale.

As one chief Reaſon for the Legiſlature's appointing the Clergy to read this Act, was, that it might be the more effectually notified, and that none might pretend Ignorance, we may be allowed to ſay, that this End is already thoroughly attained; and that no Act of Parliament that ever reſpected any Part of the United Kingdom, has been more effectually publiſh'd than this, the ſame being already known in every Corner of the Nation, even to the meaneſt Peaſant: Tho' it muſt be owned, it would not have been ſo univerſally known, had not the Clergy been appointed to read it from their Pulpits: And even the Scruples which the Brethren have had about it, has been no ſmall Occaſion of its Promulgation.

We hear from Glaſgow, that the above Act was read in Three of the Churches of that City, viz. the College, Trone, and Rams-horn Churches, but that ſeveral of the Miniſters were neceſſarily abſent. And

That it will be generally read in the large Synod of Aberdeen.

The Magiſtrates have publiſhed a new Act of Council, for the more effectual preventing of Riots in all Time coming, and directing all the Inhabitants that are in any publick Office to repair to the Places therein mentioned, to receive Directions from the Magiſtrates, upon the firſt Motion of any Uproar, Mob, or Tumult, without further Notice, on the Penalty of 100 l. each Tranſgreſſor: And this Day, Printed Copies of the ſaid Act are to be delivered to the Officers of the Trained Bands, Conſtables, &c.

From the Daily Gazetteer, Auguſt 17.

The Magiſtrates of Petersburg continue to make ſtrict Search after the Incendiaries, concern'd in the many Fires that have lately happen'd there, by which 'tis calculated that no leſs than Two Thirds of that City have been deſtroied. Among others, a Shopkeeper was apprehended, on a certain Suſpicion, which was confirmed by ſome Fire Balls found upon him; and in order to find out the Truth, they put him to the Torture, but he underwent it with a Courage which betokened his Innocence; and upon his making it appear that he was poſſeſs'd of thoſe Balls by meer Accident, he was releaſed, acquitted in a publick Manner, and indemnified for what he had ſuffer'd. But another Perſon, who was confin'd in the Citadel on the ſame Account, confeſſed under the Torture, that he had a Hand in the Two laſt Fires; and he has impeached ſeveral of his Accomplices, for whom all poſſible Search is making. The terrible Puniſhment which theſe notorious Villains are ſure to meet with, if taken, has not hinder'd them from making a freſh Attempt to ſet Fire to the City, but by good Luck it was diſcovered ſoon enough to prevent the Execution. The Audaciouſneſs of theſe Fellows is ſo great, that a Letter was lately found dropp'd in one of the Paſſages of the Palace, containing theſe Words: It ſignifies nothing to be at any Trouble for diſcovering the reſt of the Incendiaries; for ſuch proper Meaſures are taken, that they will never be found out. And a few Days before, there happened a very odd Circumſtance; for, on the 8th of July, O. S. while Divine Service was celebrating in the new Ruſſian Church, an ordinary Perſon to all Appearance, and one it ſeems who was quite unknown, went up to the Prieſt as he was officiating, gave him a Piece of Paper, with Money roll'd up in it, and told him, That it was ſent to pay for the Celebration of a Service for the Repose of the Soul of a Person deceased: The Priest desired him to stay 'till the Service was over; but he stole out of the Church unobserved, and when the Service was ended, the Priest opening the Rouleau, was astonished to read the following Admonition: You are advis'd to save the best Effects of your Church; because in Three Days Time that Part of the City where it stands, will be set on Fire, as will also the Booths newly erected in the Neighbourhood: 'Tis your own Fault if you don't make the best Use of the Time. The Priest shewing the Letter to the People at Church, the Alarm soon spread all over that Quarter of the City, and every Body was in a Hurry to secure their Effects: but the Time limited and Three Days more have passed over their Heads, without any more Smoak than ordinary; so that 'tis highly probable the continual Vigilance of the Government, has hinder'd the Execution of the villainous Design: And for the better securing the Stone Buildings from Fire, the Galley-Slaves are set at Work to pull down all the Timber-Houses that are near them.

Letters from Genoa, of the 16th past, say, That a Letter was lately read in their Senate, from Count Sinzendorff, the Emperor's Great Chancellor, wherein that Minister says, the Republick may depend upon his Imperial Majesty's Assistance, in Case they should meet with any Disturbance, on Account either of the Island of Corsica, or the City of Savona.

They write from Florence, That the Electress Dowager Palatine has continued the Courtiers in the same Pensions which they had during the late Duke's Life, which amount to 42,000 Crowns a Year, and are to be paid out of the Profits of the Meal-Farm. The Prince de Craon, who has approved of this, is making several other useful Regulations, reforming various Abuses, and bringing all Criminal Prosecutions to a speedy Issue. Besides some Executions already made, several Persons have been sentenced to Banishment. Of the latter Number are some Gentlemen, Ladies, and Clergymen, whose Behaviour has not been the most regular. At the same Time there have been banished a Couple of Friers, two of the late Duke's Lackeys, a Surgeon, and two Women, who are known to have grossly abused the Familiarity with which that Prince honoured them. These had Orders to quit the City in Three Hours, and the Dutchy in Three Days.

The Letters add, That the severe Prosecutions which had been stirred up against the Free Masons there are dropped, since it has been made appear, their Society has the Honour to have the present Great Duke for one of its Members; who is a Prince too Wise and too Virtuous, to be joined to a Society that should be guilty of any Indecency or Irregularity.

His Britannick Majesty having written a Letter to the States-General, notifying the Princess of Wales's Delivery of a Princess, their High-Mightinesses have resolved to write a Letter of Congratulation to His Majesty upon that Occasion; and Yesterday Se'nnight they sent a Deputation of Three of their Members, to compliment his Excellency Mr. Walpole, the British Ambassador, who is since set out with his Lady to Amsterdam, to see the Remarkables of that City and Neighbourhood.

According to Letters from Lisbon, a new Revolution has happened in the Empire of Morocco; where Muley Abdallah, who was deposed Two Years ago, by the Blacks, by reason of his Cruelties, having made a considerable Party among the Whites, marched with a great Body of Troops against his Brother Muley Hamet Lariba, whom the Negroes chose in his Place, and totally defeated his Army, killing 7000 on the Spot, and taking all the rest Prisoners, except those who fled. After this Muley Abdallah entered the Southern Provinces, which had submitted to his Brother, and reduced them; but Muley Hamet Lariba retired to the Mountains with the shattered Troops, so that Abdallah is like to remain in Possession of the Throne.

They had great Hail-Storms lately in and about Tours in France, whereby all the Fruits in above 150 Parishes have been destroyed, besides the great Damage done to the Houses: And we hear that there have been the like destructive Storms in the Lyonnis, Burgundy, Champaign, Guienne, and several other Provinces.

London, August 19. On Tuesday last, a very shocking Accident happen'd at Mr. Fenton's Mill, at Limehouse Wall, where one Wood, his Servant, unfortunately slipt into the Grinding Part, whilst it was at Work, and had his Right Arm and Shoulder cut off: He afterwards walk'd down the Stairs of the Mill with great Presence of Mind. He was carried to St. Thomas's Hospital, and is in a fair way of Recovery.

Last Week the Right Hon. the Lord Haversham was married at Newport-Pagnell, in Buckinghamshire, to the Lady Elizabeth Green, Sister to the Right Hon. the Earl of Angleſea; a Lady of extraordinary Accomplishments, and a very large Fortune.

There is an Account from Whitehaven, in Cumberland, that a few Days since, 24 Men were suffocated in the Coal-Mine belonging to Sir James Lowther, Bart. by what is called in the Collieries, a Fire-Damp, which frequently happens.

This Day came on the Election of a Master of the Charter-house, in the room of the Rev. Dr. King, deceas'd; when Nicholas Man, Esq; was chosen.

The following is an Extract of a very important Letter dated July 4. from Hamburgh, which was publish'd in the Utrecht Gazette.

'The strict Union between the Courts of Russia and 'Poland shews it self every Day more and more; and 'we have certain Advices here, that the Czarina has 'lately given a signal Proof of her Friendship to Po'land, by a Declaration she made to the Emperor's En'voy Extraordinary, the Count d'Ostein, in Effect as 'follows:

'That besides her Alliance with the King of Poland, 'by virtue whereof she not only has his Interests very 'much at Heart, but is likewise bound to support and 'maintain them upon every Occasion, she was in parti'cular concerned very much for the well-grounded Right 'of his Polish Majesty, as Elector of Saxony, to the 'Succession of the Dutchies of Juliers and Berg: That 'having heard that several Powers were endeavouring 'for an Accommodation, and a Partition thereof between 'the King of Prussia, and the Elector Palatine, in Fa'vour of the Prince of Sultzbach, to the Exclusion of 'the King of Poland, and the Electoral Family of Sax'ony; whose Rights to the entire Succession of Juliers, 'Berg, and Cleves, seem to her at least as clear and evi'dent, as the Pretensions of the two other Competitors, 'she hoped that the Emperor, instead of giving Ear to 'an Accommodation so prejudicial to his Dignity of 'Supreme Judge in the Empire, would be inclined of 'his own Accord to do Justice in this Case to his Polish 'Majesty; and that he would be as much biassed to it 'of his own Natural Equity, as from a Grateful Sense 'of that substantial Service which that Prince lately did 'to his Imperial Majesty, by so generously furnishing a 'considerable Body of Saxon Troops, to be employed 'against the Turks. That moreover, her Majesty could 'not help declaring, that she would never abandon the 'King of Poland's Interests with regard to this Succession; 'but that, on the contrary, she would support them by 'the most effectual Methods. 'Tis added, that in Pur'suance hereof, her Czarian Majesty has caused very po'sitive Orders to be sent to all her Ministers, where-ever 'the said Affair is treated of, to second those of the King 'of Poland, in such Representations as the latter shall 'make in their Master's Behalf, to the End that nothing 'may be determined upon that Head, to the Prejudice of 'the Electorial House of Saxony. 'Tis, moreover, the 'general Notion of Petersburg, that the Powers who are 'labouring to prevent the Troubles and Confusion that 'may arise from this Competition, will do the Work but 'by Halves, if, in the Accommodation of this Affair, the 'King of Poland, in Quality of Elector and Head of the 'Saxon Family, does not obtain the Justice and Satis'faction which he has a Right to expect.'

Hague,

Hague, Aug. 16. 'Nothing is more certain, than that 'the Marquis de St. Gilles is to go for England, he having already received his Inſtructions, tho' he is to wait 'for further Orders before he embarks.

'His Excellency Mr. Walpole continues his private 'Conferences with our Miniſters, as 'tis ſuppoſed, for 'concerting the Meaſures that are convenient to be taken 'in the preſent Situation of Affairs. There does not 'ſeem to be any Intention at this Place, of acceeding to 'the Plan of the Treaty lately communicated: Beſides, 'the Invitation is ſo cold, and ſo far from preſſing, that 'tis eaſy to perceive the Emperor and France do not 'want the Concurrence of the Maritime Powers to this 'Treaty.

'Be this as it will, Mr. Trevor, in a late Conference 'with the States Deputies, imparted the Sentiments of 'the King of England relating to the ſaid Treaty, or 'Plan of a Treaty, that was communicated to His Ma'jeſty; and he declared, that his Maſter was reſolved to 'act in Concert in every Thing with the States-General. 'M. Hopp, our Miniſter at London, has likewiſe Or'ders to make the ſame Declaration on the Part of their 'High-Mightineſſes, to the Court of England: So that 'theſe two Powers ſeem more and more diſpoſed to ce'ment the Bands of their ancient Union.

'As to the War with the Turks, ſome Politicians are 'very confident it will ſoon be at an End; and as if 'France alone was to be Miſtreſs and Umpire of this 'War, they pretend that 'tis expreſsly ſtipulated, by a 'ſecret Convention betwixt that Power and the Em'peror, that Aſoph on the one Side, and Boſnia on the 'other, ſhall be the Prize of the Peace, and the Ne Plus 'Ultra of the Conqueſts to be made upon the Turks.

'We hear from Amſterdam, that tho' moſt of the Po'liticians of this Place write to their Friends there, that 'Affairs in general are upon a good Footing, and that 'there is nothing to fear during the Life of Cardinal de 'Fleury, who is for an univerſal Peace; yet there has 'been an unaccountable Sort of Alarm upon the Ex'change, owing partly to an Apprehenſion from the 'French Troops ſwarming on the Frontiers of Flanders; 'which they imagine is with ſome View that may be 'pernicious to the Intereſts of this Republick. This bare 'Apprehenſion, whether groundleſs or not, has however 'ſunk the Publick Stocks, and in the preſent Situation, 'tis not to be expected they can riſe very high.

'The laſt Letters from Warſaw ſay, That the Ruſſians 'loſt 800 Horſe, and 3200 Foot, at the Attack of Oc'zakow, with Two General Officers, and 168 Subal'terns; and that the Grand Vizier was aſſembling all 'his Forces, to the Number of 230,000 Men, to attack 'the Count de Munich, who lay ſtill incamped about 'half a League from the Place.'

London, Auguſt 29. On Friday the Univerſity of Oxford waited on His Majeſty at Hampton Court, and congratulated His Majeſty upon the Birth of the Princeſs, Daughter of their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales; to which humble Addreſs, His Majeſty was pleaſed to give a moſt gracious Anſwer.

And on Saturday the ſaid Univerſity alſo waited on His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, at St. James's, to congratulate His Highneſs on the ſaid Occaſion; to which, his Highneſs was pleaſed to return a moſt gracious Anſwer: After which they were all very elegantly entertained at Dinner at St. James's, by the Right Hon. the Lord North and Guilford, one of the Lords of the Bed-chamber to his Royal Highneſs.

An Envoy from the moſt ſerene Duke of Saxe-Gotha, is daily expected at this Court, to compliment their Majeſties and their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, on the Birth of the young Princeſs.

Auguſt 30. Laſt Night, between 7 and 8 o' Clock, the New-born Princeſs was baptiſed in an Apartment belonging to His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, at St. James's, under a fine Canopy erected for that Purpoſe, by the Name of AUGUSTA: The Ceremony was performed by his Grace the Archbiſhop of Canterbury; and the Sponſors were his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of the King's Houſhold, for His Majeſty; the Right Honourable the Counteſs of Burlington, for the Queen; and the Right Hon. the Viſcounteſs Torrington for the Dutcheſs Dowager of Saxe-Gotha.

A large Silver Font gilt, Baſons, and other Neceſſaries, were brought from the Jewel Office in the Tower, on that Occaſion.

Yeſterday the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of the Univerſity of Cambridge, waited on His Majeſty in their Formalities, at Hampton Court, with their Congratulatory Addreſs, on the happy Delivery of the Princeſs of Wales of a Princeſs.

And this Day they are to wait on their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, at St. James's, on the ſaid Occaſion.

London, Sept. 1. A private Letter by the laſt Mail from Vienna ſays, 'tis affirmed there that the Grand Vizier has been depoſed, and that the Porte has appointed the Baſha of Boſnia to ſucceed him; that the Trenches before Widdin were opened the 4th ult. and the Turks make frequent Sallies on the Beſiegers, commanded by the Count de Khevenhuller, but without Succeſs; that Prince Charles of Lorain is march'd to reinforce the Count with 8 Battalions, and a Part of the Artillery: That a violent Hurricane lately happened at Belgrade, by which a Barge laden with 36,000 Grenadoes for the Grand Army, had the Misfortune to be caſt away.

This being the Birth-day of his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, who enters into the 27th Year of his Age, Their Majeſties will receive the Compliments of the Nobility on that Occaſion.

Sept. 3. Yeſterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

An Expreſs from Count Munich brought Letters to Petersburg, dated the 15th of July, O. S. with Advice that he had alter'd his Deſign of paſſing the Nieſter at Petrepalanka, on the Frontiers of the Tartars of Bialogrod, by reaſon of the many Lakes and Marſhes in the Road thither from Oczakow; and that the Tartars had deſtroyed all the Forrage, and entirely ruin'd that Country: And that therefore the Count had thought it more adviſeable to march his Army along the Bog, and to turn off to the Left, and paſs the Nieſter at another Place. The Letters add, that the Count hop'd to arrive in Time before Bender to attack the Seraskier's Forces there, before they were joined by the Grand Vizier, whoſe Army when form'd for its Defence will conſiſt of 52,000 Men.

Two of the Incendiaries concerned in the late Fires at Peterſburg, have been burnt alive there.

A Letter from Franckfort mentions Advice from Swiſſerland, that the French King has ordered 8040 Men to be ſent to Corſica, to help to ſubdue the Rebels there.

Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales will ſee Company on Monday, Tueſday, and Wedneſday, the 12th, 13th, and 14th of this Month: But Nobody will be admitted to ſee her Royal Highneſs, or to come into the Rooms, but People of Faſhion, and thoſe are to come in in full Dreſs, and between the Hours of Six and Eight o' Clock on Evenings.

The Concourſe of People was ſo very great, and the Heat occaſioned thereby ſo violent, for Numbers of Perſons came in an Undreſs, contrary to the Orders given out, that a Stop was obliged to be put to any more Company ſeeing the young Princeſs laſt Friday.

Poſitive Orders are now given, that no more Compapany ſhall be admitted to ſee her Royal Highneſs the Lady Auguſta.

London, Sept. 9. Yeſterday the Marquis de Cambis, Ambaſſador Extraordinary from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to this Court, was admitted to a private Audience of his Majeſty at Hampton Court, to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cotterell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Afterwards he had a private Audience of her Majeſty, being introduc'd by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham, her Majeſty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by Sir Clement Cotterell, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Laſt Wedneſday the Commiſſioners for building the Bridge at Weſtminſter, met, and examin'd ſeveral Propoſals for laying the Foundation of the Bridge, and Models of the Machines to be employed for that Purpoſe, and came to ſeveral Reſolutions thereupon; but being inform'd, that the Seaſon of the Year was too far advanc'd to begin a Work of that Conſequence, thought proper to adjourn their next Meeting to the firſt Wedneſday in February, ſoon after which they will begin the building of the Bridge.

Extract of a Letter from on board Capt. Phelps, of Briſtol, dated at Malemba, on the Coaſt of Angola, May 27, 1737.

'On the 9th Inſtant we arriv'd here, all perfectly well. 'The following Ships are already on the Coaſt of Angola, viz. At Loanga, the old Queen Mary, of Briſtol, (now in French Service) for 700 Slaves; a large Pink for 500; a Snow for 300. At Malemba, Capt. Phelps of Briſtol, for 400. At Capebenda, the Pearl, of London, Tomſon, for 550; the Betty Galley, Winſter, for 450; and one large Frenchman, for near 700. Neither of theſe (Winſter excepted) hath 130 Slaves on board: So that, when Capt. Foy, in the Medway, Bower, in the Shepherd, and Hemley, in the Morning Star, are arriv'd from Briſtol, (and without doubt ſeveral from other Places) what a Proſpect ſhall we have for a quick Diſpatch? All our Meat on board is quite rotten, and ſtinks horribly.

Williamsburg, Nov. 11. This Day arriv'd in York-River, the Ship Hanover, Capt. Roger Rumney, from Briſtol, in about 7 Weeks. Capt. Ludlow is come a Paſſenger in her; and his Ship is to follow him ſhortly.

We hear, the Right Hon. the Earl of Albemarle is appointed Governor in Chief of this Colony: And that 'tis paſt all Doubt, the Hon. William Gooch, Eſq; our preſent Lieutenant-Governor, will be continued in his Station.

John Clayton, Eſq; His Majeſty's Attorney-General of this Colony, who has been dangerouſly ill ſome Time, ſtill continues weak; but is in a hopeful way of Recovery.
